

French Premiums

FOAL BORN IN FRANCE MARE TO BE COVERED IN FRANCE

- Birth in France
- Birth declared with the French National Stud
- Identification of the foal in France
- Foal can travel abroad on a temporary visa for a maximum of 1 month

Non exhaustive information, for more detail refer to Article 86 of the France Galop's racing rules

- Foal must be bred in France until the 1st June N+1
- The mare must not leave France more than 180 days during the birth year of the foal

FOAL BORN IN FRANCE MARE TO BE COVERED ABROAD

- Birth in France

→ OBLIGATIONS BEFORE LEAVING FRANCE:

- 1/ Birth declared with the French Stud-Book
- 2/ Identification of the foal in France
- 3/ Temporary export certificate organised with France Galop*

- EXIT PERIOD: max 180 days
- Dam & foal must be back before the 15th July N
- Foal must stay in France from his return until the 1st June N+1, exit period for the foal can't exceed 1 month
- Transport documents + hosting certificate of the French Stud Farm must be forwarded to France Galop before 31st December N+1

 at the latest, one month after the exportation*

FOAL BORN ABROAD MARE TO BE COVERED ABROAD

- Mare in foal can only leave France from the 15th December N-1. Temporary export certificate organised with France Galop prior to departure or during the following leaving month
- Birth abroad
- Birth declared with the concerned Stud Book, identification of the foal in the birth country

- EXIT PERIOD: max 180 days
- Dam & foal must be back before the 15th July N
- Foal must stay in France from his return until the 1st June N+1, exit period for the foal can't exceed 1 month
- Transport documents + hosting certificate of the French Stud Farm must be forwarded to France Galop before 31st December N+1

Firts

Register your mare in the French Stud-Book and check that her export certificate is lodged in France Galop office.

Key dates FOR YOUR FOALS

- > N-1: foal conception year
- > N: foal age / foal birth
- > N+1: yearling age

